

Facts, Statistics and Taxes

Geography

The community of Sevelen is situated in the Canton of St. Gallen in the Werdenberg region. The community also encompasses the hamlets of Rans/Oberräfis, St. Ulrich and Sevelerberg. The community lies on the eastern slopes of the Alvier mountain chain, on the opposite bank of the Rhine from the Liechtenstein capital of Vaduz. It extends to the peak of the Fulfirst mountain at 2,383 metres, where it borders the community of Walenstadt. In the valley, the Rhine marks the border of Sevelen, where it reaches its lowest point at 451 metres. In total, the community covers an area of 30.34 km².

Current popular figures as of 31.12.2007

Total inhabitants	4434
Swiss citizens	3147
Foreign nationals	1287

Tax rate 2007

State	105%
Community	145%
Protestant church tax	25%
Catholic church tax	22%
Total Protestant	285%
Total Catholic	282%

> www.steuern.sg.ch

Tax calculator:

> <http://www.estv.admin.ch/d/dienstleistungen/steuerrechner/sg.htm>